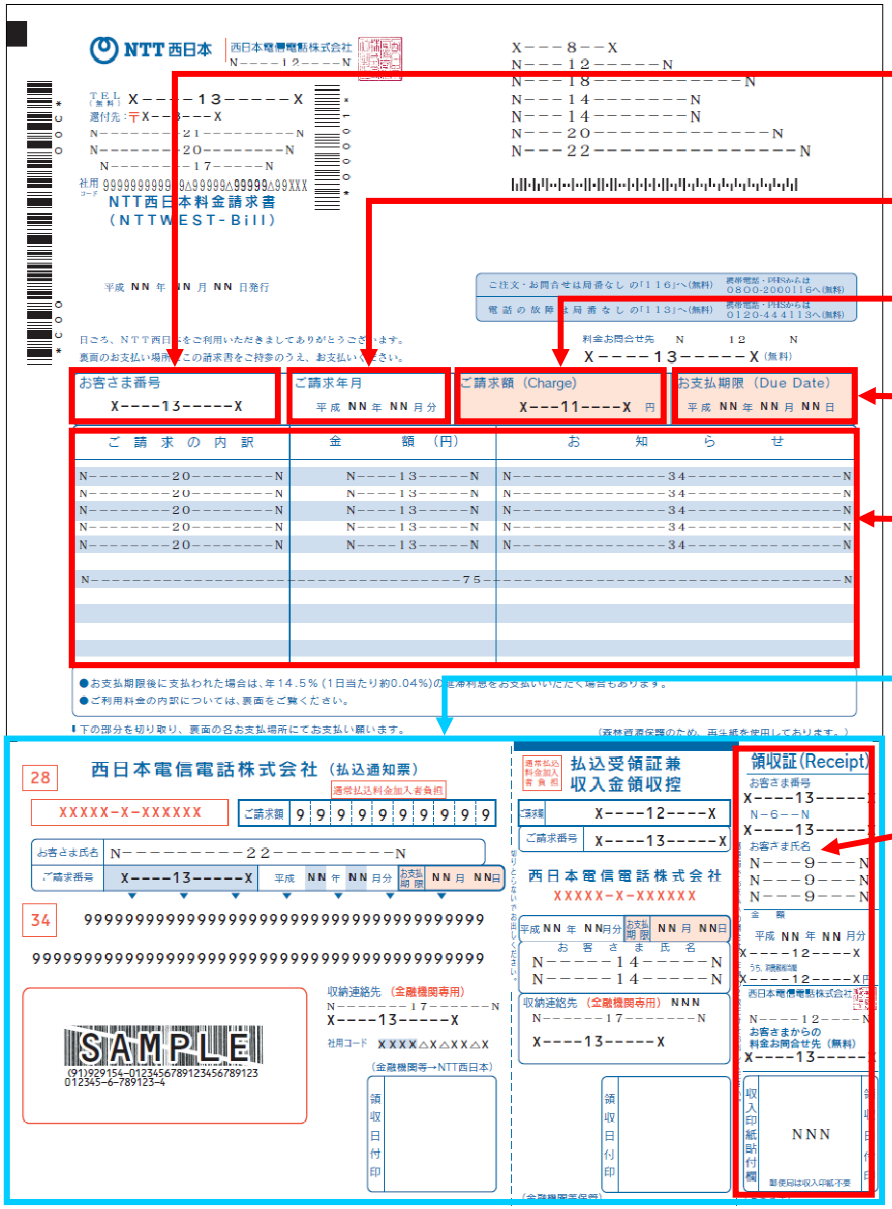
NTT West Bill

Referencing the following, please bring “⑥ Bill for your payment” to a nearby convenience store, bank or post office and pay the amount of “③ Charge” by “④ Due date.”



① Customer number

※ It’s your telephone number (Area code + City code + Telephone number) or customer number beginning with “00.”

② Billing date

③ Charge

④ Due date

⑤ Statement

※ The details of the monthly charges including “NTT-West charge” and “NTT Communications charge” are listed.

⑥ Bill for your payment

※ Please tear this part off along perforation and pay the bill at a nearby convenience store, bank or post office.

⑦ Receipt

※ After paying, you will receive this part. Please retain it.

If you pay the bill after the due date, we may charge 14.5% interest per year (approx. 0.04% a day) on your overdue account.

NTT West Receipt and Automatic Bank Account Transfer Notice

If you use automatic bank account transfer service, NTT West sends you receipt and automatic bank account transfer notice. Check out the content and retain the receipt. Please be sure that your bank account has enough money for the next transfer.

① Customer number

※ It's your telephone number (Area code + City code + Telephone number) or customer number beginning with "00."

② Date of bank account transfer

③ Billing date

④ Total amount due

⑤ Statement

※ The details of the amount due including "NTT-West charge" and "NTT Communications charge" are listed.

⑥ Receipt

※ It's a receipt for the previous month. Please retain it.

If you pay the bill after the due date, we may charge 14.5% interest per year (approx. 0.04% a day) on your overdue account.