〈 Announcement about Purpose of Use of Customer Information 〉

1. We will use the personal information provided in this form to the extent necessary to do the following: customer identity verification, credit administration, providing telecommunication services, calculation and billing of telecommunication service charges, notices to customers on above items and implementation of any services based on the contract conditions. In addition, we will use them to the scope necessary to do the following: introduction of telecommunication services, proposal and consultation, conducting measures to improve the quality of telecommunication services and CS (customer satisfaction) (including questionnaire), planning and development of new telecommunication services, management and improvement of equipment required for providing telecommunication services and implementation of any works related to telecommunications of NTT WEST. Even after the contract for our telecommunication services with a customer is terminated, we may use the personal information for the above purposes.
2. We may provide the personal information provided in this form to other businesses to which NTT WEST commissions its works based on Personal Information Protection Law. Furthermore, we may provide them to third parties in compliance with NTT WEST rules and regulations such as contract conditions, Personal Information Protection Law, and Telecommunications Act and other laws and regulations.

〈 Credit-Card Payment Terms and Conditions 〉

1. For fees of our services such as "telephone subscription, Hikari Denwa and FLET'S" for which we will charge you (including fees of the agency to collect service charges of Dial Q2 information, lease and installment), you recognize your responsibility for payment and actually pay service charges in accordance with the terms defined by the credit card company (hereinafter refer to as the "card company").
※Hereinafter, service charges of telephone subscription, Hikari Denwa and FLET'S are collectively referred to as "service charges".
2. You also agree that we will provide the personal information necessary for the credit-card payment (customer number and service charges) for the card company. In the case of lump-sum bill of both service charges of NTT EAST and NTT WEST, you agree that NTT EAST or NTT WEST which pulls together both charges will provide the corporate or personal information necessary for the credit card payment (customer number and service charges) for card company.
3. We will inform you of the detailed breakdown of service charges for which the card company charges you through our service My Billing (service to inform you of your service charges on the Internet). After the credit-card payment starts, we will stop sending you the detailed breakdown in writing.
※If you use a lump-sum billing / payment service of multiple lines, we will send the detailed breakdown in writing.
4. The credit-card payment will start from the first billing date or the second billing date after your application date. Until the credit-card payment starts, please pay the bill in the conventional way. For the credit-card payment start date, we will announce it by sending you the "Notice for completion of the credit-card payment procedure". Once the credit-card payment starts, we will continue to receive the payment through the card company unless you notice us of cancellation of service.
5. The credit card statement sending date and bank transfer date are different depending on the credit company you specified. Only one-time payment is acceptable.
6. Please note that when your credit card number or expiration date changed, the card company may directly inform us of the new number or expiration date without prior notice to you.
7. When you change the credit card you specified, you need to submit the application form again. Please contact NTT WEST Credit Center or the contact for billing inquiries shown on the bill as soon as possible.
8. Please note that we may charge the card company for two-month service charges at once because of the relations between the card company's closing date and our service charges calculation period or other administration works.
9. Even when your credit card is not available, e.g., when you lost your membership of the credit card in accordance with the card company's regulations or when you cancelled the credit-card payment, we may charge the card company for the service charges up to the next month of the date when we received the notice from the card company.
10. Please note that the card company may terminate your credit-card payment for our service charges.
11. If any of the following events is applicable, we will directly send you the bill:
 - (1) The card company does not approve your credit-card payment for our service charges due to the card company's regulations;
 - (2) You have lost the membership of the credit card due to the card company's regulations;
 - (3) The card company has updated your card number or expiration date and we cannot contact you for a certain period when we need to confirm the updated information with you; and
 - (4) Other than the above, in the case that we determine you are not an eligible customer.
12. These terms and conditions are subject to change without your approval. After they are changed, the updated terms and conditions will be applied. The updated terms and conditions will be released on our homepage.
In addition, our information / notices are released on our homepage. Information/notices shall be deemed to have been delivered to you by such a release.

〈 My Billing Terms and Conditions 〉

1. For our services including telephone subscription, telephone subscription light plan, INS Net 64, INS Net 64 light, FLET'S services and Hikari Denwa, only the subscriber or bill payer using bank account transfer or credit-card payment can apply for "My Billing". For lines which use our discount services for multiple lines such as lump-sum sending, lump-sum billing, partial billing, early receipt sending, WARIMAX, WARIBIG, discount service for different names in the same prefecture, the subscriber or payer cannot apply for the "My Billing" service.
2. You can check the notice of service charges, the amount we received, service charges up to the previous day and details of individual phone calls on the "My Billing" site. (If you want to check details of individual phone calls, you need to submit a separate written application form. If you already applied for details of individual phone calls enclosed with the "Bank Account Transfer Notice for the Next Month and Receipt", you do not need to apply for it again. You cannot see the details of individual phone calls through the L-mode terminal or I-mode terminal.)
3. The "My Billing" service including creation of details of individual phone calls is free of charge. However, you are responsible for preparation for the environment to connect the Internet and receive emails required for using the "My Billing" service. You also bear the costs of the Internet connection and email receiving / sending.
4. You need to manage your User ID and password on your own responsibility. We do not take any responsibility for transfer, lending, loss and unauthorized use (theft) of your User ID and password.
5. After the charging month when the "My Billing" service starts, in principle, we will not issue the "Bank Account Transfer Notice for the Next Month and Receipt". However, if you cancel the "My Billing" service and use the bank account transfer, for the billing for the charging month of the cancellation date, we will issue the "Bank Account Transfer Notice for the Next Month and Receipt". Depending on the cancellation date, for the billing for the charging month before the month of the cancellation date, we may issue the "Bank Account Transfer Notice for the Next Month and Receipt".
If your change in the service includes disuse or change of your customer number, you can check up to the billing for the charging month of the service changing date on the "My Billing" site.
6. By posting of the bill and the receipt on the "My Billing" site, charging amount and received amount shall be deemed to have been noticed to you.
7. You can check the "Service Charge Notice" for the past 12 months and the "Detailed individual phone calls" for the past 2 months on the "My Billing" site. (The bills before the "My Billing" service starts are not available.)
If you cancelled the "My Billing" service, we will stop providing the service about 2 months after the cancellation date. If you transfer or inherit the line, the "My Billing" service will be cancelled after posting the bill for the charging month before the transfer or inheriting date, and the service will stop about 2 months after the cancellation.
8. If you incorrectly input your password for the 5th time in a row, your password will be invalid and you cannot log in. In case you password became invalid, please contact our inquiries at the toll free number. We will reissue your password.
9. For providing the "My Billing" service, we will provide the security by checking your User ID, password and customer number. We do not provide any further security for this service.
10. If we determined you meet one of the following, we may decline your application or stop providing the "My Billing" service without prior notice or your approval:
 - (1) You no longer meet the condition of Item 1;
 - (2) You violated any of the terms and conditions;
 - (3) We could not withdraw the amount of the charge from your bank account for 3 consecutive months;
 - (4) You cannot continue the credit-card payment; and
 - (5) Other than the above (1) - (4), in the cases that we determined you are not an eligible customer.
11. When you use the "My Billing" service, the following are prohibited:
 - (1) Unauthorized use of the other's User ID and password
 - (2) Unauthorized access trial to the "My Billing" system without the authorized access right to the system.
 - (3) Any inappropriate behaviors we determined they are.
12. If any of following events is applicable, we may shut down or stop the "My Billing" service. We assume no responsibility for any damages resulting from the service shutdown or stop.
 - (1) Shutdown or stop of the service is required for the system maintenance or other operations of the "My Billing" site.
 - (2) We cannot provide the "My Billing" service due to unexpected accidents, natural disaster (earthquake, flood and tsunami), or incidents (war and riot).
 - (3) Others than the above, in the cases that we determined we need to shut down or stop the service.
13. The "My Billing" service content is subject to partly or fully change without prior notice or approval.
14. When you cancel the "My Billing" service, please contact us at the "our inquiries" number or "116" without prefix.
15. The terms and conditions are subject to change without your approval. Releasing the updated terms and conditions on our website shall be deemed to have notified you of such updates.
